Country Evening Benefit Raises $5000 for Native American Pension Fund

About 200 people came out for a “Country Evening” at the Rehoboth Fellowship Hall. Rehoboth Church hosted the event, coordinating a delicious home cooked country rib dinner. Other “southern churches” provided help to provide food and delicious homemade desserts. A highlight of the evening was the country gospel music of Rev. Stanley Jim, family and friends. And people from Albuquerque, Crownpoint, Zuni, Sanostee and the greater Gallup area enjoyed getting together and strengthening the “ties of that bind our hearts in Christian love.”
